Quotations From Noted Sources

By United Press

DALLAS —Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.), on his struggle with Gov. Allan Shivers for control of the Texas delegation to the Democratic national convention: "A man (Shivers) who professed to be my friend has turned on me with wild and abandoned fury. He has leveled grotesque and senseless charges against me and— even more important—against my friends."

HOLLYWOOD —Actor Donald O'Connor, on the merits of old-time silent movies versus modern talkies: "I would love to have been a part of that silent era. I'm a great believer in pantomime. Most pictures now are overburdened with dialogue."

NEW YORK —Pitcher Mel Parnell, onetime ace of the Boston Red Sox, on a game this week against the Detroit Tigers that may make or break him in baseball for the future: "This is the chance I've waited for. It's the top spot again—or nothing. If I can't make it, and big, then I'll get out of the game and go into some other business."

LONDON —Harold E. Stessen, President Eisenhower's disarmament aide, on efforts to obtain Russian cooperation on ending the arms race: "The United States will patiently and persistently seek a sound agreement which will improve the prospects of a just and lasting peace. I believe the day will come when such a sound agreement will be reached. It is evident that day is near at hand."

NEW ORLEANS —Beatrice P. Adams, on why she killed her renegade lover by repeatedly running over him with her automobile: "God and I are tired of men taking advantage of women. I realized he was like all other men—rotten to the core. I thought I'd do the world a favor."

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. —Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., U. S. ambassador to the United Nations, on the success of U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld's mission to the Middle East: "Once again, as in the release of the American fliers imprisoned in Communist China, Mr. Hammarskjöld has earned our respect and gratitude."

WASHINGTON —Murray M. Chotiner, Vice President Nixon's 1952 campaign manager, on charges he used Nixon's name in his private legal practice: "At no time have I ever used the name of the vice president in connection with any client—before any agency of the United States."

MANILA —Florentino Das, who sailed alone in the 26-foot lady Timarau from Honolulu to the Philippines on his faith during the long voyage: "I just said God, if you don't like the Lady Timarau to reach her destination, just drop your ladder up there and I'll start climbing."

PADUCAH, Ky. —The Rev. William S. Evans, at funeral rites for the late Senator Alben W. Barkley: "Across his beloved state and throughout the nation and the world, men have loved him, respected his integrity, followed his counsel, and have been enriched by his personality."

WASHINGTON —Marine Corps Commandant Gen. Randolph Pate in reporting on charges of irregularities in Marine Corps training: "Some practices have crept into handling of recruits which are not only unnecessary but do not comfort with the dignity of the individual or his self-respect."

WASHINGTON —Rep. Paul Cunningham (R-Ia.) in demanding a full report on the part played by the superior officers of Marine Sgt. Matthew McKeon in the Paris Island tragedy: "I don't like to see a non-com get all the blame. They are punished."

hit the beach they were clobbered. Some units had 70 per cent casualties. Offshore, in a landing craft, Shoup ordered his reserves into the desperate fight and then led them in the sweep inland. By nightfall he had set up his command post—15 yards from the water.

As the senior officer ashore, Shoup, who had received a field promotion to colonel only a couple of days before, directed the entire operation.

"By his brilliant leadership, daring tactics and selfless devotion to duty," the citation read, "Col. Shoup was largely responsible for the final, decisive defeat of the enemy."

In World War II Shoup also collected two Legions of Merit, a commendation ribbon and assorted campaign ribbons for service in the Guadalcanal, Salpian and Timian operations in the Pacific.

Shoup signed up for the Marines in 1928, underwent training as a second lieutenant and subsequently served in China and at sea. The new recruit chief, who is answerable directly to pater, is married to the former Zola De Haven of Covington, Ind. They have a daughter, Carolyn, 22, and a son, Robert, 19.

PUNCHING POOCH—This dog's a boxer by vocation if not by species. At any rate "Squaw" provides a sparring partner for movie actor John Derek in a Hollywood studio's gym. Derek had to learn boxing for his role as a prizefighting priest in "The Leather Saint."

Funds Urged for Ouachita Navigation

WASHINGTON —An Arkansas delegation today asked a Senate Appropriations subcommittee to approve more than $14 million dollars this year for navigation and flood control on the Ouachita River and Tributaries in Arkansas. The subcommittee, of which Sen. Ellender (D-La.) is chairman and Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.) a member, is considering legislation to provide construction and planning funds for various projects in the year starting July 1.

In the group were H. K. Thatcher, of Camden, executive vice president of the Ouachita River Valley Association, C. E. Haswell, president of the El Dorado Chamber of Commerce, and Theo G. Preston of New York, Marine manager of Commercial Solvents Corp., which uses the stream for navigation.

Specifically the group asked the committee to approve these items as recommended in President Eisenhower's budget:

Maintenance of the present 6½-foot navigation channel on the Ouachita $450,000; maintenance of Blakely Mt. Dam and reservoir $200,000; maintenance of Narrows Dam $15,000; to complete planning for a modern 9-foot navigation channel $130,000; to initiate planning on the proposed Muddy Fork flood control dam on Little Missouri $30,000; to make a special study of Saline River $2,000.

In addition the group asked the committee add (1) $600,000 to build a proposed levee to protect Calton, Ark., and (2) money for a further study of the proposed DeGray flood control dam on Caddo River. The study would determine what design changes might be needed to provide water supply storage.

Urging approval of planning funds for the 9-foot navigation channel, Thatcher told the subcommittee this is "the most important single project which can be constructed for the economic benefit of the entire basin."

He said there is a potential of 1½ million tons of commerce annually available to move on the river when a 9-foot channel becomes available.

The group said that planning now is virtually complete for the Calton levee and that it would be built in the near future.

In asking funds for the DeGray Dam study, the group said the idea of providing a large storage space for municipal and industrial water behind the dam has gained momentum.

"At least six Arkansas counties and their principal towns and industries want consideration in this respect," Thatcher said.

Lilies are virtually the only exports of Bermuda.

ishing one man. Maybe others need punishing too."

INDIANAPOLIS —Maj. Alexander P. De Sevsky in predicting that this country will have only 500 B-52 long range atomic bombers by 1960:

"By the same year—1960—I estimate that Russia will have at least 2,500 TU-37 bombers of the same type already operational and possessing intercontinental range."

INDIANAPOLIS —The American Legion is criticizing a report by the President's commission on veterans pensions, headed by Gen. Omar Bradley:

"The Bradley commission and its staff have labored mightily and expensively to bring down a very small bird."

NEW YORK —Brandon De Wilde, 14-year-old actor with seven years' experience, on child actors:

"People have the wrong idea about professional kids. They think we're just naturally brats because we're actors."

Colleges to Adjust Their Athletics

By Ernest Barton

NEW ORLEANS —Auburn, the University of Florida and the University of Louisville are planning to adjust their athletic programs to the probationary status imposed on them yesterday by the National Collegiate Athletic Assn.

Auburn's probation is for three years, the longest period ever handed out by the NCAA. Florida and Louisville are on probation for two years.

For the first two years, Auburn's athletes will not be allowed to compete in bowl games or any invitational event that supports the NCAA enforcement program. Florida received the same penalty for two years.
